

“Longevity – it’s academic”

ABSTRACT

This presentation analyses the mortality and longevity characteristics of the members of the largest funded UK pension plan. The membership of the plan is large, geographically diverse, and yet reasonably homogeneous in terms of demographic profile. As such it provides a unique case study and interesting comparisons with other populations.